Moran Has State Barons Before Grand Jury ICE TRUST IN RACK

SECRETARY CHARLES W. HALLSTRAM OF 'ICE DEALERS' ASSOCIATION.

Witnesses from All Over Massachusetts Called to Testify as to Extortion.

With his dealers from all over Massachusetts in District Attorney John B. Moran's office at 10 o'clock today, the first trust investigation before the Grand Jury is on.

One of the most important of the witnesses, who arrived before 10 a. m., was Secretary Hallstram, of the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association, with his confidential clerk, Oliver Hayward. District Attorney Moran ordered them to bring their books and records, together with stenographers Collins and Moore, who will read to the Grand Jury what transpired as the "peak" on dinner, on April 3.

Witnesses called from Boston, Worcester and Springfield were present to tell the Grand Jury the results of their investigations into the ice trust's affairs, and through them the district attorney will endeavor to show that without a doubt there is an "Ice Trust" in existence in Massachusetts.

BOB EXPLOSION IN TENEMENT INJURES 2 MAN ACCUSED OF BEING RESPONSIBLE HAS HIS RIGHT HAND BLOWN OFF.

NEW YORK, August 1.—A man and a woman, strangers to each other, were today indicted by the mysterious explosion of a high power boiler in the tenement house at No. 279 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, early today.

Both are in the Eastern District Court and the man with one hand blown off and his face cut and lacerated, and the woman with her face and hands badly lacerated.

The victims were Thomas Owens, a thirty-year-old, who lived on the fifth floor with his wife and three small children, and Mary Egan, who, with her fifteen-year-old daughter, lived on the second floor of the building.

Owens went on a strike some time ago and a notice to quit was served on him. He was in a rooming house at the time of the explosion. He was in a rooming house at the time of the explosion. He was in a rooming house at the time of the explosion.

From Interior Cities.

Important witnesses summoned from Worcester are Major Lewis G. White, president of the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association, and two members of the staff of the Worcester Gazette, who have been active in investigation of the methods of the ice dealers of Worcester. From Springfield will come other witnesses interested in ice matters, and in every town and city where the Massachusetts Ice Trust reaches out its tentacles Mr. Moran has served summons.

Prominent among the latest witnesses summoned are Joseph E. Day and J. W. Breuninger, both big dealers in Lynn. They were served with notices last week to appear before the Grand Jury, and to prepare the evidence in the case. They are now in Boston and to show how the trust arrangement has been made in different territories throughout the State.

Moran is Confident.

District Attorney Moran is said to be highly elated over the evidence that has been furnished, and is confident of results. Assistant District Attorney Joseph B. Sullivan, who has had special charge of the case, has been perfecting the evidence and the plan was perfected in the afternoon of the 28th. He has been perfecting the evidence and the plan was perfected in the afternoon of the 28th.

Probe is Thorough.

It has been known that for some time past the investigators have had their agents in all parts of the State and in other places where the ice business is done. The sources of supply, which the dealers allege to be the monopoly of a few men, have been traced and the probe, having been very thorough, the prosecutors present to the Grand Jury will be able to show the public that the ice business is a monopoly.

FAMILY SUICIDE CLARA DRALEY WAS SLAIN

Special to the Boston American.

RELIANT, Me. Aug. 1.—Despite all contradictions, it did bear a motor boat working off from shore into shallow waters, where it was wrecked and the boat was smashed and the boat was smashed and the boat was smashed.

The night before last, Clara Draley, a young woman, was found dead in the water. She was found in the water. She was found in the water. She was found in the water.

Wires With St. Petersburg Cut To-day, and Great Military and Naval Station Is Isolated—Heavy Fighting in Progress at Sveaborg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—Cronstadt has been cut off from communication with St. Petersburg, and it is feared that the garrison has mutinied.

Both the telephone and telegraph wires have been cut, and, although efforts have been made for hours to re-establish communication, they have been unsuccessful. Official St. Petersburg is panic-stricken.

Cronstadt is the great military and naval fortress that guards the approach to St. Petersburg, and is only twenty miles from the Czar's capital.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, August 1.—Fighting of a desperate character is still going on between the revolutionists and the loyalists.

The main forts of Sveaborg is held by the rebels.

The forts on Nicholas Island are still controlled by the soldiers of the Czar and are engaged in a duel with the Sandhamm's masked batteries, in possession of the rebels. They are exchanging broadsides at ten-minute intervals.

About fifty wounded have been taken from Sveaborg to Helsingfors, but it is known that hundreds of dead and injured are still at the fortress.

Naval Squadron to Attack Mutineers.

A naval squadron, including the battleship Slava, is on the way from Revel to attack the mutineers, and the population has begun to leave a bombardment.

The stories of the refugees from Sveaborg, mainly families of officers, contain details of the awful massacres in the fortress. No mercy was shown by the rebels, they say, even women and children being shot down.

Hundreds fell to the fighting, which, after a lull, was resumed at daylight to-day. It is impossible to send reinforcements by land, as the mutineers, assisted by marines from their warships, have torn up the railroad leading to St. Petersburg. The rebels took possession of the line for sixty miles and cut it in many places.

Big Strike Declared.

The revolutionary workers in Helsinki have declared a general strike and are arming the mutineers. Hundreds of the workers, disguised as sailors and heavily armed, are with the rebel bands.

From some of the refugees in Helsinki it was learned that the revolt at Sveaborg was started by two battalions of sappers and miners. They marched out of barracks fully armed, each with their officers ordered them back shot them down. Then all the artillerists joined the rebels, and half an hour later half of the infantry were over.

All the loyal troops were massed in the corner of the fortress, and it was here that the terrible slaughter took place. The artillerymen raised every machine gun on the solid bodies, which were being ordered into positions against the rebels, and in the narrow area fighting was done.

It was impossible to rectify the blunders of the officers, who exposed their men with machine guns, and they were found, but the authorities had no time to find shelter and from the first found themselves in the hands of the rebels. The rebels were in the hands of the rebels.

THAW'S MOTHER STICKS TO INSANITY PLEA, TAKES NEW RISKS

Will Ask for Commission in Lunacy; His Opposition Will Not Avail; Wife and Mother at Peace.

By Boston American Special Wire.
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—That Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the young Pittsburgher, who is in the Tombs charged with the murder of Stanford White, will take no chances with the life of her son was proved yesterday morning. When Evelyn Nesbit Thaw received an invitation by telephone to come to the Carnegie country house at Roslyn, L. I., and spend the night with her mother-in-law.

The invitation came on the heels of an open break which occurred Monday morning in the corridor of Ward No. 10 in the Tombs. The trouble grew out of the old story of Mrs. William Thaw's insanity plea. Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw sided with her husband and now left the conference. When Mrs. William Thaw, the mother, and her daughter, Mrs. George

Will Ask Lunacy Commission.
Mrs. William Thaw is said to have finally decided on the line of defense which will be followed. She desires the return of Judge Black, the under member of Judge Oliver's bench. The American was reliably informed yesterday that, at the request of the prisoner's mother, Judge Black will go before the Supreme Court and ask for a commission in lunacy to determine the sanity of Harry Thaw. The prisoner's protest against such a move will be unavailing, and if the commission finds him insane he will be sent to Mattawan.

Clifford W. Harbridge, Thaw's personal counsel, is prepared to oppose such a move, several legal witnesses were examined yesterday by the prosecution.

STOCKTON SPRINGS, Me., Aug. 1.—In answer to a complaint addressed to "The Bird Man, care of Governor Cobb" and signed by pretty Hazel Libby, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Libby, Game Warden Walter I. Neal has put an end to the shooting by Italian in this town of police, blackbirds, thrushes and sparrows. Pierce Lugo, a young Italian, appeared for violating the game laws, and was ordered to pay a fine of $5 for each bird shot, the court, amounting in all to about $20. The court also confiscated the gun.

Italian laborer, prior to the little girl's complaint, had become so numerous that they could not be counted. They were seen everywhere, and robbing the nests of young birds, which they considered a great delicacy. Here is the letter to the "Bird Man" which brought about the investigation:

"The Bird Man, care of Governor Cobb: I have been shooting blackbirds, thrushes and sparrows and swallows and chipmunks and taking the eggs out of the nests of the mother birds very much. Yours truly, Hazel Libby, seven years old."

ONE OF GREW OF FISHERMEN LOST AT SEA
Fog So Dense That Viking Could Not Find Andrew Ross and His Dory.

With her flag flying at half-mast, the fishing schooner Viking, Captain Joseph Harding, came to T wharf today, having lost Andrew Ross of Gloucester in a dory on the North Beach, about thirty miles southeast of Highland Light. Early last yesterday the vessel returned from the wharf, when she disappeared.

THE VIKING left T wharf on July 20 for the fishing grounds, and from that time until she sailed into Boston Harbor today not a glimpse of the sun was had, the vessel being wrapped in what fog all of the time. Last Sunday morning at 1 o'clock the vessel left T wharf and disappeared.

LOWELL, Aug. 1.—Mayor James D. Casey, after a hearing by the Lowell Board of Aldermen, declares that in his judgment the charges made by Alderman Lodge that bribes were offered in the interest of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company to defame an application for a rival telephone company for street franchises were not sustained.

Alderman Lodge, who made the charges, declares that the hearing was a farce. He says that he will ask District Attorney Lester, with emphasis in saying that he will ask the court to order the charges made by Alderman Lodge to be paid. Alderman Lodge, on whose statement the charges were made, made no denial, but after admitting to the board that he had been offered by a representative of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, and that he had accepted the offer, he said that he had not actually been offered a bribe.

Read Hayes's Affidavit.
At the hearing James F. Hayes, counsel for Alderman Hayes, whose affidavit was read, and had stated to him that he had been offered by a representative of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, and that he had accepted the offer, he said that he had not actually been offered a bribe.

CRAZED WITH BURNING ECZEMA

Suffered From Childhood With Severe Itching and Burning—Eczema Soread Over Hands and Fingers—Received No Benefit From Physicians.

BLESSINGS FOR THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I was troubled with eczema in about three years after birth. About three years ago the trouble was confined to my right hand. I consulted two physicians, but received no benefit from them. In the winter of 1904 the trouble had become so bad as to extend over the back of my hand, and up on the fingers, and in a short time to the palm. The itching and burning at times was so severe as to almost drive me. I began to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Tablets. I used two boxes of Soap, one box of the Ointment, and two bottles of the Resolvent. I cannot begin to tell of the benefit I received. My appetite and weight increased, and I felt and looked like a new person. I will give my full permission to publish my experience as you see fit. Blessing the Cuticura Remedies, yours truly, Miss Flora E. Wiley, Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 1, 1905."

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS

At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura.

Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., the Cuticura Remedies, consisting of warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure. Cures made in childhood are permanent, and economical.

Great Harry, once our idol and our pride?
Where is Cy Seymour holding forth today?
Where is the big Overhill, like Jeffries' thigh?
Where is Fred O'Day, with his dashing slide?
The toast of many a Cincinnati German?
With other clubs they're all identified,
Playing great ball—but not for Harry Herrmann.
Where is Charles Chase, who, critics used to say,
With every pitching talent was supplied?
And where is Cy Seymour, whose backstop play
Had many a rival safely roped and tied?
Where is Fred O'Day, with his dashing slide?
Done, one and all; cleaned out like weeds or corn,
Yet appeared, ever again, as they glide,
Playing great ball—but not for Harry Herrmann.
Steinfeld is playing on Chicago way,
With snap and vim that can't be denied.
Cy Seymour's feat in New York gardens stray,
Changed to a hitting Jekyll from a Hyde.
We Portkown fans believe it's out and dried,
And what the end will be we can't determine.
